The Examiner acknowledges the amendment filed 4/25/2007. Claims 70-115 remain pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 97-111 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Pat. 4923681.

Referring to Fig. 1 and col. 5, lines 53-64, and considering use of the device by an attendant communicating with a superior, a doctor for example, US'681 discloses the device as claimed, including thermal treatment of medical items whose treatment temperature and time requirements are known by the artisan, user entry of temperature and time, display of both, notice of exceeding utilization temperature or treatment time being the visible indication of these values to the attendant, indicating removal time by timer reading, and ending treatment when compliance with the known treatment regime is ended. The attendant who places the medical item in the treatment device will feel an elevated temperature in an item to be treated if it has been previously treated, hence he/she register will this information and transmit same to the user.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 70-96 and 112-115 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 4/25/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant states that the new limitation, "via said thermal treatment system," is distinct from the disclosure of US'681. However, the user in fact monitors the temperature and time "via" the display of US'681, which is part of the "system" of US'681, thus meeting the new claim limitation.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
